

ECnet & SEEBURGER ANNOUNCE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP IN ASIA PACIFIC REGION

Joint Solution Brings Together Comprehensive Supply Chain Management Solutions with Leading Global B2B Gateway

SINGAPORE (SEPTEMBER 15, 2005) --- ECnet Limited, a leading global provider of collaborative supply chain solutions and management services, today announced a regional strategic alliance with SEEBURGER Asia Pacific Limited, a leading provider of global business integration solutions.

With this strategic partnership, ECnet will collaborate with SEEBURGER through the following three-pronged approach: Adoption of SEEBURGER's B2B Gateway as the technology platform for its next generation of hosted service solutions, bundle SEEBURGER's B2B Gateway as part of its unique license offering and resell SEEBURGER's B2B Gateway in Asia Pacific primarily Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand and China.

SEEBURGER, with global operations in North America, Europe and Asia Pacific, has a global installed base of over 6500 customers across various verticals to include high tech, automotive, healthcare and logistics. SEEBURGER has been rated as best of class by analysts and is the only B2B/EDI solution embedded in the SAP Netweaver technology stack. SEEBURGER's Asia Pacific headquarters are located in Hong Kong and is rapidly penetrating the Asia Pacific region via strategic partners like ECnet.

"We are pleased to partner with SEEBURGER in our effort to provide our customer base of over 1000 with one single, internally developed platform for efficient, secure and reliable process automation. After an extensive research into current integration products on the market, we decided on SEEBURGER as its products fitted well with our operations and that of our customers' requirements, said Mr. Peter See, CEO, ECnet Limited.

Mr. See added, "As a reseller of SEEBURGER's products, we have recently obtained SEEBURGER's certification to implement projects for SEEBURGER technology. We are extremely honored to be associated with SEEBURGER, which has been ranked by Gartner Research¹ as a market leader in the B2B space. We look forward to a long and enriching relationship with SEEBURGER."

"ECnet was a pioneer in Internet EDI. They have grown to become a leading provider of cost-effective, scalable supply chain and B2B solutions. By partnering SEEBURGER is able to extend our offerings to a wider user base in Asia. We are glad to be partnering with ECnet to deliver our solution offerings to their target verticals in high tech, automotive, healthcare and logistics. We believe that ECnet's customers will be able to appreciate SEEBURGER's solutions with our proven track record of flexible, highly reliable, world class B2B integration solutions," said Mr. James Hatcher, Managing Director, SEEBURGER Asia Pacific Ltd.
